I CARE Core Skills

Inquire
- “How are you doing?”
- “Tell me more about that…”
- “I notice . . . (pattern, change, content, intuition)”

Connect
- Remove distractions
- Pay attention to your body language

Acknowledge
- Microphone and spotlight
- WIG (What I Got) – summarizing what the speaker says
- “It sounds like…”
- “I’m hearing that…”

Respond
- “I feel concerned about you.”
- “I want to get you the help you need.”

Explore
- “Can I give you some advice/suggestions?”
- “Have you thought of ways to cope with this?”
- “Have you considered talking to someone about this?”
Identifying Stress, Distress, and Crisis

- If you are debating between two levels (stress vs. distress or distress vs. crisis), seek more information. If you cannot obtain more information, assume the more severe.
- Call CAPS (215-898-7021) 24/7 to consult with a professional if you are uncertain.
- Involve others (friends, house staff, faculty and staff) if you are concerned.

Crisis Intervention

DO’S

- When someone’s life is in imminent danger, you should call Penn Police (215-573-3333) or 911.
- Call CAPS 215-898-7021 (24/7) to consult with a clinician if you are uncertain.
- If you are concerned about someone, it is okay to ask someone if they are thinking about hurting or killing themselves or someone else.
- Communicate your concern and desire to keep them safe.
- Develop a plan; call others in to help.
- Focus on reducing immediate danger and connecting to a higher level of care.
- Send a clear message: “You are not alone.”

DON’TS

- Don’t leave the other person alone (unless your safety is threatened).
- Don’t attempt to resolve longstanding issues.
- Don’t make promises of confidentiality.
- Don’t debate the other person’s choices or challenge for shock effects.
- Don’t minimize the other person’s problems.
- Don’t assume you know the person.
Making a Referral to CAPS

When to Contact CAPS:

- Questions: You have questions about CAPS’ services, whether a referral is appropriate, or how to make a referral
- Consultation: You need help assisting a student who has resisted your referral efforts
- Concerns: You are concerned about a student (E.g. the student is talking or behaving in a way that is unsafe, bizarre, or unusual).

Things to Remember (The 3 C’s):

- Commitment: You want students to know that you are committed to helping them and that you are not "dumping them off onto someone else."
- Collaboration: Successful referrals result from joint decisions made between the student and the person helping the student. You are not responsible for the choices the student makes. You can only provide insight to help motivate the student to focus on improving their well-being.
- Confidentiality: CAPS has an obligation to protect a student’s confidentiality. However, you can follow up with the student to see if they followed through with a referral.

Tips on How to Refer a Student to CAPS:

- Show that you care, but discuss your limitations: E.g. "I can support you with this, but I think that a clinician at CAPS can be most helpful to you in addressing this problem."
- Be specific about why you are referring a student: E.g. "CAPS has some people who are really good at helping students address family problems." (Rather than, "Why don't you go over to CAPS?")
- Make a personal referral: E.g. “I’ve met _____ at CAPS. I find this person very easy to talk to. Maybe I can give that person a call to help guide us through the process.”
○ Offer to call or walk with the student to CAPS: E.g. “Would it be okay if we call CAPS together/walk over together?”

○ Make a plan for follow up: E.g. "Is it okay if I'll check with you on Monday to see how your meeting went?"

How to Refer a Reluctant Student to CAPS:

○ Explore reasons for unwillingness:
  ○ E.g. “What might be getting in the way?”
  ○ E.g. “Tell me about your thoughts/perceptions/prior experiences with CAPS or other professional counselors?"

○ Listen and express concern:
  ○ E.g. “I feel concerned about you.”

○ Explore need for alternatives
  ○ E.g. “Can we think of other ways you could feel supported?”

○ Normalize help seeking
  ○ E.g. “A lot of students go to CAPS for all kinds of things. No issue is too big or too small.”

○ Seek consultation
  ○ If you feel worried, call CAPS for support. Your self-care is also valued.

○ Follow up
  ○ Follow up with the student and/or CAPS to continuity of care
  ○ Following up also shows you are still dedicated to the student and it is not, “out of sight, out of mind.”

Self-Care Worksheet

The following worksheet for assessing self-care is not exhaustive, merely suggestive. When you are finished, look for patterns in your responses. Are you more active in some areas of self-care, but ignore others? Listen to your internal dialogue about self-care. What do you want to include more in your life?

Rate the following areas according to how well you think you are doing:
3 = I do this well (e.g., frequently)
2 = I do this OK (e.g., occasionally)
1 = I barely or rarely do this
0 = I never do this
? = This never occurred to me

Physical Self-Care
____ Eat regularly (e.g. breakfast, lunch, and dinner)
____ Eat healthily
____ Exercise
____ Get medical care when needed
____ Take time off when sick
____ Dance, swim, walk, run, play sports, or do some other fun physical activity
____ Take time to be sexual - with myself, with a partner
____ Get enough sleep
____ Wear clothes I like

Psychological Self-Care
____ Take day trips or mini-vacations
____ Make time away from telephones, email, and the Internet
____ Make time for self-reflection
____ Notice my inner experience - listen to my thoughts, beliefs, attitudes, feelings
____ Have my own personal psychotherapy
____ Write in a journal
____ Attend to minimizing stress in my life
____ Engage my intelligence in a new area, e.g., go to an art show, sports event, theatre
____ Say no to extra responsibilities

Emotional Self-Care
____ Spend time with others whose company I enjoy
____ Stay in contact with important people in my life
____ Give myself affirmations; praise myself
____ Re-read favorite books, re-view favorite movies
____ Identify comforting activities, objects, people, places and seek them out
____ Allow myself to cry
Find things that make me laugh
Express my outrage in social action, letters, donations, marches, protests

Spiritual Self-Care
Make time for reflection
Spend time in nature
Find a spiritual connection or community
Cherish my optimism and hope
Be aware of non-material aspects of life
Be open to not knowing
Identify what is meaningful to me and notice its place in my life
Meditate
Pray
Make gratitude lists
Contribute to causes in which I believe
Read inspirational literature or listen to inspirational talks or music

Relationship Self-Care
Schedule regular dates with my partner
Schedule regular activities with my children
Make time to see friends
Call, check on, or see my relatives
Spend time with my companion animals
Stay in contact with faraway friends
Make time to reply to personal emails and letters; send holiday cards
Allow others to do things for me
Ask for help when I need it
Share a fear, hope, or secret with someone I trust

Workplace or Professional Self-Care
Take a break during the workday (e.g., lunch)
Take time to chat with co-workers or peers
Make quiet time to complete tasks
Identify projects or tasks that are exciting and rewarding
Create balance in the workday or school day
Arrange workspace so it is comfortable and comforting
Get regular supervision or consultation
Have a peer support group
